FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AMHERST, NY- Wondering where to go on your next vacation? The Amherst Chamber of Commerce has your next great escape already planned! After a successful trip to China in 2009 and overwhelming interest in another, the Chamber has decided to once again host a trip abroad. In partnership with Indus Travels, the Amherst Chamber of Commerce will be conducting a group tour to beautiful Tuscany, Italy where you will visit incredible cities such as Rome, Florence, Chianti and Pisa on an amazing 11 day adventure.

While visiting Tuscany you'll spend three nights in Rome, two nights in Siena, three nights in Florence and a night in Pisa discovering all that Italy has to offer. Day excursions to Rome, Assisi, Perugia, Siena, Chianti, Volterra, San Gimignano, Florence, Lucca, Pisa and Grosseto will provide you with unforgettable memories to last you a lifetime. We promise this trip will be absolutely remarkable!

The Amherst Chamber of Commerce will be hosting three informational sessions on the trip to Tuscany throughout the month of April. The sessions will be held on the following days:

- April 13, 2010 from 5:30 pm – 6:30 pm
- April 14, 2010 from 5:30 pm – 6:30 pm
- April 22, 2010 from 6:00 pm – 7:00 pm

All sessions will be held at the Amherst Chamber of Commerce, 350 Essjay Rd., Suite 200, Williamsville, NY 14221. With this amazing trip starting at only $2,499, you've got nothing to lose and everything to gain by coming and learning more. To register for one of the informational sessions please contact the chamber by phone at 632-6905 or by email at kwhelan@amherst.org.
