AMHERST, NY – The Amherst Chamber of Commerce is pleased to announce the addition of Christian Solecki and Caitlin Campbell to its office. Solecki has been named Insurance Benefits Manager, and is licensed in Life, Accident and Health Insurance. Campbell will serve as the Chamber’s Member Services & Communications Manager.

Solecki comes to the Chamber after working for the past three years at a local branch of corporate insurance broker Brown & Brown of New York, Inc. He brings knowledge of HRA, HSA, FSA, open enrollment and plan design to his new position. Solecki’s background also includes servicing customers, medical plan analysis and wellness programs. The company addresses the needs of large and small businesses with attentive service, quality products and knowledgeable staff.

Campbell has joined the Chamber after serving the past two years in the Erie County Executive’s Office where she filled a variety of roles. She will be responsible for managing the Chamber’s Communications, Marketing and Member Services Division. The Amherst Chamber is currently in the process of furthering their ongoing goal to continually communicate with its members, representing businesses of all sizes and industries. Campbell will be working to identify, mobilize and structure services that will support and enhance the membership’s prosperity.
